BASIC INSTRUCTION (Part I)

And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

THE ORIGINAL CITY BUILDERS

Cain* had gone out from the presence of the Lord and cast away the promise of the restored Eden, to seek his possessions and enjoyment in the earth under the curse of sin, thus standing at the head of that great class of men who worship the god of this world.

THE DESCENDANTS OF NOAH

For a time the descendants of Noah continued to dwell among the mountains where the ark had rested. As their numbers increased, apostasy soon led to division. Those who desired to forget their Creator and to cast off the restraint of His law felt a constant annoyance from the teaching and example of their God-fearing associates, and after a time they decided to separate from the worshipers of God. Accordingly they journeyed to the plain of Shinar, on the banks of the river Euphrates.

THE CITIES ARE HOTBEDS OF VICE

Many parents who choose a city home for their children, thinking to give them greater advantages, meet with disappointment, and too late repent their terrible mistake. The cities of today are fast becoming like Sodom and Gomorrah. The many holidays encourage idleness. The exciting sports—theatergoing, horse racing, gambling, liquor-drinking, and reveling—stimulate every passion to intense activity. The youth are swept away by the popular current.

Light has been given me that the cities will be filled with confusion, violence,
and crime, and that these things will increase till the end of this earth's history.

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a dense urban landscape, likely New York City. The image shows a vast expanse of skyscrapers and buildings packed closely together. The colors of the buildings range from light beige and tan to dark grey and blue. In the upper right corner, a body of water (likely the Hudson River) is visible, with a bridge spanning across it. The overall scene conveys a sense of intense urban density and complexity.

The world over, cities are becoming hotbeds of vice. On every hand are the sights and sounds of evil.
Everywhere are enticements to sensuality and dissipation.

WHO WILL ANSWER THE CALL...?
(Part 2)

A close-up photograph of a young child with dark skin and hair, looking intently at an open book. The child is wearing a blue and white patterned shirt. An adult's hand is visible holding the book, and a portion of the adult's face is visible in the upper right corner. The background is dark and out of focus.

And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

A warm, intimate photograph of a woman with blonde hair reading a book to a young child. The woman is looking down at the book, and the child is looking up at her with a focused expression. The background is softly blurred, emphasizing the interaction between the two.

The plan of education made known to Israel through her prophets was the means of keeping that light burning. When this God-given plan was neglected, the light, as a candle deprived of the life-giving oxygen, burned dim. Then it was that the nation was pressed upon all sides by the foe. There is a Hebrew maxim which says that "Jerusalem was destroyed because the education of her children was neglected." The prophecies of Daniel and the connected history prove the truth of this maxim.

A man with dark hair, wearing a white shirt, is sitting outdoors and holding a young girl with blonde hair. They are both looking down at an open book that the man is holding. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting a park or garden setting. The text is overlaid on the image, with the first part in white and the second part in yellow and orange.

As God called Abraham out from the idolatry of Chaldea, and made him the father of the Hebrew nation; as he delivered to that people a form of government that would exalt God; as he gave them commandment so to teach their children that the Jews would become a teacher of nations and might be an everlasting kingdom, so to-day he calls forth a people from modern Babylon.

He has intrusted to them principles of healthful living which will make them mentally and physically a wonder to the world. He has given them educational principles which, if followed, will make them the teachers of the world, and finally bring them into the kingdom of God. And to them he has delivered the principles of true government which recognize the equal rights of all men, and which in the church organization bind all together-one body in Christ Jesus.

A score or more of years passed by, when a second decree, quite as favorable
as the first, was issued by Darius Hystaspes, the monarch then ruling. Thus did God in mercy provide another opportunity for the Jews in the Medo-Persian realm to return to the land of their fathers. The Lord
foresaw the troublous
times that were to follow
during the reign of Xerxes...

God ceased not to plead with those who voluntarily remained in the land of their exile, and through manifold agencies He made it possible for them also to return. The large number, however, of those who failed to respond to the decree of Cyrus, remained unimpressible to later influences; and even when Zechariah warned them to flee from Babylon without further delay, they did not heed the invitation.

A modern tropical house at night, featuring a large swimming pool in the foreground. The house has a dark wooden frame and a tiled roof. The interior is lit up, showing a bedroom with a four-poster bed and a dining area with a table and chairs. The house is surrounded by lush tropical landscaping, including palm trees and various plants. The sky is a deep blue, and the overall atmosphere is serene and luxurious.

Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time. I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

EZRA 7:12-13

Ezra had expected that a large number would return to Jerusalem, but the number who responded to the call was disappointingly small. Many who had acquired houses and lands had no desire to sacrifice these possessions. They loved ease and comfort and were well satisfied to remain. Their example proved a hindrance to others who otherwise might have chosen to cast in their lot with those who were advancing by faith.

JUDGEMENTS COMING ON THE CITIES

Terrible shocks will come upon the earth, and the lordly palaces erected at great expense will certainly become heaps of ruins.

When God's restraining hand is removed, the destroyer begins his work. Then in our cities the greatest calamities will come.

The end is near and every city is to be turned upside down every way. There will be confusion in every city. Everything that can be shaken is to be shaken and we do not know what will come next. The judgments will be according to the wickedness of the people and the light of truth that they have had.

TOTAL OBEDIENCE...

(Part 4)

The background image shows the Great Sphinx of Giza in Egypt, carved from limestone, with its head facing left. The scene is set at sunset or sunrise, with a sky transitioning from deep purple to bright orange. The Sphinx is illuminated by the low sun, casting a long shadow. In the foreground, there are several large, cylindrical stone blocks, likely remnants of the Sphinx's original base or surrounding structures. To the right, the tip of the Great Pyramid of Giza is visible in the distance.

In his mission to Pharaoh, Moses was to be placed in a position of great peril; his life could be preserved only through the protection of holy angels. But while living in neglect of a known duty, he would not be secure; for he could not be shielded by the angels of God.

The background image shows the Great Sphinx of Giza in Egypt, carved from limestone, with its head facing left. The scene is set at sunset or sunrise, with a vibrant sky in shades of orange, pink, and purple. The Sphinx is illuminated by the low sun, casting long shadows. In the foreground, there are several large, cylindrical stone blocks, likely remnants of the Sphinx's original base or surrounding structures. To the right, the tip of the Great Pyramid of Giza is visible in the distance.

In the time of trouble just before the coming of Christ, the righteous will be preserved through the ministration of heavenly angels; but there will be no security for the transgressor of God's law.

Angels cannot then protect those who are disregarding one of the divine precepts.

thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.
